

MAID OF HONOR SPEECH FOR YOUR SISTER

"Hi, everyone. I'm [Your Name], [Bride's Name]'s [older/younger] sister, and her maid of honor. Growing up, I didn't always appreciate just how lucky I was to have [Bride's Name] as my [big/little] sister. Mostly because she [insert funny sibling memory, e.g., "used to steal my clothes and somehow make them look better than I ever did"]. But somewhere along the way, she became one of my absolute favorite people.

[Bride's Name], you have always been [insert genuine quality, e.g., "the one in our family who knew exactly how to make everyone feel seen"].

I remember [insert a specific childhood or family memory that reflects her character, e.g., "the way you used to check on Mum every single evening without being asked, you just always knew when someone needed you"]. That's the kind of person you are. You always have been.

When [Partner's Name] came into the picture, I did what any good sister does — I watched carefully and waited. [Insert light humor here if appropriate — e.g., "I had a list. They didn't know about the list. They passed the list."] But honestly? It didn't take long. I watched [Partner's Name] look at you the way you deserve to be looked at, and that was enough for me.

[Partner's Name], welcome to the family, officially. Fair warning: we are [insert honest family description, e.g., "loud, opinionated, and extremely loyal"]. You'll fit right in.

[Bride's Name], Mum and Dad raised us to love fiercely and show up fully. You do both every single day. Watching you step into this next chapter, I couldn't be prouder to call you my sister.

Everyone, please raise your glasses. To [Bride's Name] and [Partner's Name], may your marriage be full of laughter, patience, and all the good stuff in between. We love you both. Cheers!"
